JOB SUMMARY: The Patrol Sergeant is the First Line Supervisor for the Patrol Division of the Lummi Nation Police Department, which is responsible for general law enforcement, crime prevention and investigation work governed by Title 9, Lummi Nation Code of Laws, Law Enforcement Officers Code. The Patrol Sergeant is responsible for all duties and responsibilities of the Police Officer, in addition to being a First Line Supervisor.

The employee occupying the position of this class is responsible for the protection of life and property through enforcement of Lummi Code of Laws, Titles 5, 6, and other Tribal Codes, statutes and laws; rendering emergency assistance to the public in a wide variety of situations; patrolling residential, rural and business areas of the Lummi Indian Reservation, performing standard crime and accident prevention; identifying and recovering stolen property; investigating traffic accidents and crime; and deciding whether to arrest or not, as well as when to use force or firearms.

Law enforcement involves personal danger and the employee must exercise individual judgment and discretion in meeting emergencies and enforcing ordinances and laws. Other duties include conducting the complete investigation of crimes and attending court for civil traffic and criminal cases.

ESSENTIAL JOB DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES include the following, and other related duties as assigned.

1. Provide direct supervision of Police Officers to ensure integrity of investigations, including maintenance and security of major crime scenes, i.e. evidence, photos, victim safety, and report writing.
2. Provide notification of superiors in command structure of major incidents, crimes, arrests, etc.
3. Ensure rights of citizens are protected in arrest decisions.
4. Ensure proper documentation of police activities.
5. Review and approve daily police reports for accuracy, elements of crime, and complete documentation of crime to ensure successful prosecution.
6. Review civil citations for accuracy and format.
7. Schedule patrol shifts to ensure proper coverage for special events, holidays, community activities, etc.

8. Conduct annual employee evaluations of police officers and update job descriptions, if necessary.
9. Make recommendations for training, special assignments, etc., based on employee performance.
10. Sergeants will utilize their expertise and experience to develop in-service trainings and assist in coordination of in-service trainings.
11. Sergeants are issued department cellular phones and are expected to respond to calls from department members within a reasonable time.
12. Counsel employees regarding corrective action, provide necessary training, and schedule for review.
13. Prepare and submit operational reports to the Lieutenant.
14. Sergeants may be subject to call out during critical incidents that require extended or continuous manpower.
15. Learn Lummi culture and apply knowledge as appropriate to investigate crimes and interact with community members.
