JOB SUMMARY: The Substance Use Disorder Professional (SUDP) provides trauma-informed, culturally responsive assessment, counseling, and care coordination services for individuals receiving services at the Lummi Nation Secure Withdrawal Management and Stabilization (SWMS) program. This position serves adults admitted voluntarily or involuntarily (including under Washington State involuntary treatment statutes, Ricky's Law) and works as a core member of a multidisciplinary team to support safe withdrawal, stabilization, and transition to ongoing treatment and recovery supports. The SUDP honors Lummi Nation values, sovereignty, and traditional healing practices while delivering evidence-based SUD services.

Initial schedule consists of Monday – Friday from 8am - 4:30pm. However, scheduling for SUDP positions are designed to support 24/7 program operations and may include weekend coverage and rotating holiday shifts. Current anticipated schedules may include the following; however, schedules are subject to change based on program needs, staffing levels, and operational requirements:

SUDP (4) 10-hour shift: Sunday – Wednesday from 7:30 – 5pm OR Wednesday – Saturday 7:30 – 5pm

ESSENTIAL JOB DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES include the following, and other related duties as assigned.

1. Conduct comprehensive substance use disorder assessments in EHR, including biopsychosocial evaluations and ASAM (4th Edition) level of care determinations, within 24 hours of patient being admitted into the program.
2. Develop, implement, and update individualized treatment plans in collaboration with patients and the interdisciplinary care team.
3. Provide individual and group counseling using evidence based and culturally responsive practices (e.g., White Bison, MI, CBT informed approaches, relapse prevention).
4. Track and manage involuntary treatment cases, including Ricky's Law/Lummi Mental Health Code Title 47 timelines and compliance requirements.
5. Ensure accurate and timely submission of court reports, treatment updates, and legal documentation as needed to support patient's progress.
6. Attend court hearings as needed, daily multidisciplinary Treatment Team staff meetings, and case reviews as required.

7. Deliver crisis intervention, CPI de-escalation, and stabilization support within a secure withdrawal management setting.
8. Assist clients and families in understanding legal processes related to treatment and stabilization for individuals that are on an involuntary hold.
9. Collaborate with nursing, medical providers, peers, court liaisons, tribal healers, and discharge planners to ensure continuity of care.
10. Maintain accurate, timely, and compliant clinical documentation in the electronic health record. This includes documenting all court-related communications and activities in the electronic health record or designated system.
11. Maintain confidentiality and compliance with HIPAA, 42 CFR Part 2, and tribal policies.
12. Integrate Lummi Nation cultural values, traditions, and strengths-based approaches into service delivery, in partnership with Tribal Healers and cultural staff.
13. Perform other related duties as assigned.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

- Substance Abuse Disorder Professional Certification with the WA State Department of Health under Chapter 18.19 RCW.
- Associate's degree in counseling, social work, psychology, or a related human services field (or higher).
- At least three (3) years of experience providing SUD assessment and counseling services
- experience in withdrawal management, residential, or crisis settings preferred.
